12 MS. SCHOENBACHER: Gail Schoenbacher. I'm
13 pleased to be a participant of this experience. To me 14 this is an issue of freedom of speech as well as 15 freedom of the press. It's only logical that the more 16 people whose voices are heard, the more democratic the 17 message will be.

18 If only a handful of profitable companies,
19 whose interest is making more money, had the most 20 opportunities to speak to us, tell us what we want, 21 how to live, and portray the images of us, and some of 22 those are violent and negative, it cannot be 23 beneficial for the future of the United States.

24 I know many people today have felt their 25 minority was not represented. I, as a member of the

2 the direction of the media and where it's moving. I
3 have turned off my TV because it does not represent 4 me. It does not speak to me, it simply repeats, be 5 afraid, and buy, buy, buy.

6 I've attended events which were not
7 covered, or worse, misrepresented. I've learned more 8 about benefits from friends in foreign countries than 9 from our own media.

10 I might find a blurb about foreign events

12 They should be.

6 In this land of free speech, which is a

9 This is not the case.

1 for the record just call me Joe Citizen, representing

3 You know -- are they gone yet, you know,
4 the -- I think there are two of them back there.
5 Right? WGN is gone, Comcast and Clear Channel? Okay.
6 Maybe we can really talk a while.

7 I heard that two of you guys are kind of 8 leaning one way, two are going the other way, and one
9 in the middle. Okay. The one that replaced Chairman
10 Powell, that's where I'm going to direct most of it
11 to there. I see the interpreters gone, so her fingers 12 won't get numb. You guys can be able to get your 13 behinds rested up after I get through talking.

14 I want to address for you one issue. Can 15 we kind of get to the situation where it's like this 16 right now, where if I turn on the TV set, I can get 17 Channels 2, 5 and 7, ABC, off the air, without having 18 to pay somebody for it. It's going to get to the 19 point where after a while those who control the 20 information flow are the ones that I got to go to pay 21 it for.

22 Once that digital starts to come into play,
23 you know, all these I can address, that's the one 24 thing I'm afraid of, I'll have to pay somebody and 25 they'll hand me the information, direct my -- control

1 my information flow. Plus there'll be mail casting 2 things to the communities which I won't be able to get 3 Democracy Now, I won't be able to get certain things.

4 I'll get the bling bling channel on the south side,
5 where in other neighbors they'll get more concentrated 6 political action.

7 If you do anything, let it be like it was 8 where I had a ham radio operator set. Maybe I
9 can't -- I don't want to listen to WGN Radio on the 10 air. Maybe I want to listen to a radio station, I'll 11 get my own radio station and get it analogily out.
12 But with digital, those who control the information
13 flow, I'll have to pay them money, because right now,
14 in order to get anything beyond the basic channels, I
15 have to pay money.

16 I'm trying to get you to really

1 There are over one million Latinos in Cook
2 County. I'm one of them. I was born and raised in 3 Chicago, as were my parents. I'm currently a
4 theatrical and television performer, but I'm also a
5 former television producer/writer for the local PBS
6 station here in Chicago.

7 A Brookings Institution study based on the 8 2004 Census Bureau data found that Latinos are the 9 largest minority group in the Chicago metropolitan 10 area. Nearly 19 percent of the metro area's 11 population. And that figure is growing.

12 It would seem those kinds of figures would 13 warrant an effort to provide more broad-based media
14 coverage of issues affecting the Latino population in 15 the greater Chicago metropolitan area. Unfortunately,
16 that is not the case. Even with five mainstream
17 television stations doing English language telecasts.

18
19 As a regular viewer, I will 20 tell you that the reality is that issues affecting the 21 vast majority of Latinos are generally given little or 22 no focus, unless the story takes on a degree of 23 national interest, or there's a criminal element.

24 There are currently two English -- two

4 And the one thing I did want to say to -- 5 Rainbow Push, I mean -- and I just wanted you to know
6 that I hope that -- you know, I have -- I'm hoping 7 good things from what you do here, but I hope you --
8 all the stuff that you heard about these groups doing, 9 these broadcast moguls doing for the community and 10 stuff like that, you need to know, many of them have

19 I came here to also state that -- I'm not

21 interviewing what's going on, because, again, there 22 has been a very bad situation across the country in

1 from Iraq. Twenty-five year of men are coming back
2 100 percent disabled -- and women, missing legs and 3 limbs. And the mainstream media doesn't cover it.

4 I work with legal issues, I work with the 5 things that happen in the community. I come down to 6 the community more than anyone, Alex Jones and all of 7 us. You have to understand that the people were not 8 counted here. You were directly to the folks that are

2 MODERATOR SIGALOS: Thank you.

4 MODERATOR SIGALOS: Sir, can you state your

6 MR. JONES: Bruce Jones. When the panel
7 was here in the late '70s, or mid '70s, I suggested
8 that they -- we have an Editorial Board at every 9 station. They came up with editorials that we could 10 reply to with maybe no censorship.

11 We don't have any Editorial Boards, and 12 that should be crucial aspect of these stations in the 13 public interest, fairness and what have. It could 14 even be a substitute for public access on main 15 broadcast media, and what have you. And you need to 16 be universal on cable.

17 I would also suggest that to the extent
18 that the sponsor system may obviate the licensee's
19 obligation to program in the public interest, you
20 should fix it so they can't buy a program or an hour,
21 they have to buy the time in between programs. Maybe 22 no more than five minutes on the hour and at the 23 bottom of the hour, you know, 10 minutes of the hour 24 goes to the advertising, the rest of it goes to the 25 public and programming.
